QUESTION 4

Dr. Jennifer is a Malaysian tax resident. She was offered a position as the service director of TopAire Corporation Bhd. (TopAire) effective from 1 August 2018. She earns RM16,000 per month and contributes 11% of her salary into her Employee Provident Fund account every month. She received a bonus equivalent to one month's salary on 31 January 2021.

Dr Jennifer was given an imported reconditioned car costing RM130,000 (without fuel) and a driver with a monthly salary of RM2,100 from 1 April 2019 onwards. The car was first registered in Malaysia on 16 March 2019.

Dr. Jennifer underwent right hip surgery in August 2021, and the employer covered the RM62,000 medical bill. In addition, she was also provided an unfurnished terrace by her employer for the whole year of 2021. The monthly rental of the house is RM2,000. Throughout the year, she spent RM12,500 on utilities and paid RM5,400 for her credit card spending. All these expenses were reimbursed by the employer subsequently.

In January 2021, TopAire offered Dr Jennifer an employee share option to acquire 8,000 ordinary shares in TopAire at RM1.00 per share. The market value at the time when the share option was offered was RM4.00 per share. Dr Jennifer exercised the option and sold the shares for RM5 per share in November 2021.

Other information about Dr Jennifer in year 2021 as follows:

1. Dr Jennifer is married to John and the couple has two children. Their first child, Angie, 15 years old, is disabled and currently studying in a special school catering for disabled children in Selangor. Their second child, Bonnie, 5 years old, is attending kindergarten class.
2. During the year, Dr Jennifer paid a life insurance premium of RM3,300.
3. She spent RM9,000 on her parents' medical expenses. Both of her parents are tax residents for the year of assessment 2021.
4. She purchased a new Samsung phone worth RM3,000 for herself. Besides, she also bought books and magazines costing RM1,900 for her children.
5. She incurred expenses of broadband subscription (under Dr Jennifer's name) of RM1,200.

During a meeting in December 2021, Dr Jennifer has been assigned to head the taskforce to oversee a project in Thailand for three months starting from 1 April 2022 to 30 June 2022. During these three months, her remuneration and personal expenses in Thailand will be borne by her employer in Malaysia.

Dr Jennifer's husband, John, working as an accountant with JYT Engineering Bhd. (the Company) since 1 January 2005. He retired from his position on 31 January 2021 when the company went through a reorganization. He was 49 years old when he retired and was paid a gratuity of RM100,000 by the company. The gratuity paid to John complied with the agreement concluded between the Company and him.

In February 2021, John set-up his own practice, John & Co, with his best friend, Simon. Both of them have agreed to share the profit and loss equally. The partnership business closes its accounts on 31 December annually. Each partners contributed RM200,000 of capital into the partnership and was paid RM833 per month of interest on their capital contribution.

Both John and Simon have received the following benefits from the partnership business in year 2021:

	John	Simon
	RM	RM
Salary per month	2,500	2,000
Allowance per month	400	900

In the year 2021, the partnership paid private expenses for John and Simon amounting to RM2,600 and RM3,000 respectively.

Additional information:

1. The provisional adjusted income for the year ended 31 December 2021 was RM400,000.
2. The capital allowance on the partnership's assets for the year of assessment 2021 was RM35,000.
3. The partnership made a cash donation amounting to RM4,000 to Caring Home (an approved institution) on 1 August 2021.

Required:

- (i) Calculate the income tax payable by Dr Jennifer under separate assessment after taking into account all taxable income and reliefs available under the Income Tax Act 1967 (as amended) for the year of assessment 2021. Assume Dr Jennifer claims the child reliefs. Round all figures to the nearest RM.

Note: All items stated in the question are to be included in the computation. Where the item is not taxable or deductible, indicate 'nil' or 'exempt' in the computation. (20 marks)
